

From: Karen Hardy
To: 2002 Act Review
Subject: Protection of Wild Mammals (Scotland) Act
Date: 21 March 2016 18:49:53

Dear Sir

I am writing to express my feelings regarding the above.

Like the majority of people, I believe that hunting belongs in the past and has no place in civilised society. However those who take part in this so-called 'sport' choose to justify themselves, it is clear to any decent human being that it is done for no reason other than self gratification. Animals deserve to live in their natural habitat without being hunted and ripped to shreds for the enjoyment of people who behave like savages.

I can think of no justification for people taking part in this murderous activity, or for it being allowed to continue, and appeal to you to make it illegal, in any shape or form, with appropriate punishment for those who think they are above the law.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully
Mrs Karen Hardy

Sent from my iPad

This email was scanned by the Government Secure Intranet anti-virus service supplied by Vodafone in partnership with Symantec. (CCTM Certificate Number 2009/09/0052.) In case of problems, please call your organisations IT Helpdesk.

Communications via the GSI may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.

This email has been received from an external party and has been swept for the presence of computer viruses.
