

From: [REDACTED]
To: 2002 Act Review
Subject: Hunting act
Date: 25 March 2016 09:27:48

I would like to say how strongly I feel the hunting act of today should not be altered in anyway, it seems to work for the purpose it was made for and I see no reason to amend it.

It would be nearly impossible to flush foxes from cover with only 2 dogs and would defeat any attempt to control the vermin.

I live in stock country and know how important it is to control foxes lambing is I progress at the moment and I am certain if our local hunt had not been active in our area we would be continually loosing lambs and having stock badly upset at this important time.

I would strongly ask the government to leave this act as it is and let country life continue as it is.

Concerned

Joan M Hollands

Sent from my iPad

This email was scanned by the Government Secure Intranet anti-virus service supplied by Vodafone in partnership with Symantec. (CCTM Certificate Number 2009/09/0052.) In case of problems, please call your organisations IT Helpdesk.

Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.

This email has been received from an external party and has been swept for the presence of computer viruses.
