

From: [REDACTED]
To: 2002 Act Review
Subject: HUNTING ACT
Date: 30 March 2016 13:20:46

The Hunting Act 2002 is being consistently flouted. The exemptions therein can be & are used to disguise traditional hunting with dogs. Foxes are chased by packs of hounds in spite of this law & when a fox is torn to pieces claim that it was just 'accidental'. This is a disgrace to allow this glaringly obvious loophole to exist. This loophole needs closing without any further delay. It is being proved over & over that hunts are using this loophole to continue their brutal hobby. Please remove this loophole so that hunts are no longer easily able to continue to flout the law & make a mockery of the laws of the land. It is important that this law is upheld properly as other laws !

Sent from my Samsung device

This email was scanned by the Government Secure Intranet anti-virus service supplied by Vodafone in partnership with Symantec. (CCTM Certificate Number 2009/09/0052.) In case of problems, please call your organisations IT Helpdesk. Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.

This email has been received from an external party and has been swept for the presence of computer viruses.
