Dear Sir/Madam,

I writing in response to the fact that the Scottish Government is planning on reviewing the 2002 Act. I think that it is a purely political move and a waste of money to even look at it.

Mainly for the simple reason that we have been hunting within the Law for the last 10 years and there is no suggestion that the Law needs changing.

Also by not using a full pack of dogs the flushing of a fox would become a lot more difficult.
