

From: Paula Boulton
To: 2002 Act Review
Subject: Hunting Act
Date: 31 March 2016 10:12:17

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am shocked that this subject even has to be discussed!! This is a barbaric pastime which should be placed well and truly in the annals of history.

It has been proven that it is not humane, from autopsies that have been carried out on "hunted" foxes. Public opinion is as ever totally against it. Here in England it has been banned for 11 yrs but is still practised by individuals, who consistently flout the law, this I find despicable, the law should be tightened and these people brought to justice. The SNP have always voted in favour of a ban, which led me to believe that hunting was a thing of the past in Scotland, I am very disappointed to find that this is not the case. But I hope that your review will tighten it and make it finally a thing of the past.

Yours hopefully

Paula Boulton

[Redacted signature block]

This email was scanned by the Government Secure Intranet anti-virus service supplied by Vodafone in partnership with Symantec. (CCTM Certificate Number 2009/09/0052.) In case of problems, please call your organisations IT Helpdesk.

Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.

This email has been received from an external party and has been swept for the presence of computer viruses.
