

From: Peter Davis
To: 2002 Act Review
Subject: Hunting
Date: 31 March 2016 18:01:22

Being of Scottish descent, I am saddened and ashamed to see evidence of a group of animal abusers being able to circumvent the law and exploit loopholes when hunting. It is clear that illegal hunting is happening across Scotland-hours and hours of video footage is irrefutable. It is also clear that the vast majority of people oppose hunting and that it is an unnecessary spectacle which allows and promotes extreme cruelty. Lastly, to allow one group to treat the wishes of the decent majority who find such cruel persecution of our wildlife absolutely horrifying does little to send a message to society that law exists for a reason. How can we expect the youth of Scotland to respect the rule of law when such arrogant flouting of it goes on so blatantly by hunters? I urge you to finally ban hunting and close the loopholes in the law. Hunters have nobody but themselves to blame: they have proven beyond doubt on numerous occasions that they cannot be trusted.

Yours faithfully
P Davis
Sent from my iPhone

This email was scanned by the Government Secure Intranet anti-virus service supplied by Vodafone in partnership with Symantec. (CCTM Certificate Number 2009/09/0052.) In case of problems, please call your organisations IT Helpdesk.
Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.

This email has been received from an external party and has been swept for the presence of computer viruses.
