Hi [REDACTED]

I have asked [REDACTED] to set this up as agreed so you should get an invitation by the end of the week.

Subject: Split Payment Workshop

Hi [REDACTED]

As promised I have detailed the job titles of the DWP delegates for the initial discussion on Split Payments.

[REDACTED]

As I said if there is room it would be good to involve either [REDACTED] from my team too but we can decide once we know how many are attending from Scottish Government. I have copied everyone into this email so you have their contact details.

Cheers

Speak on Monday, if you still have time.
