You have applied the upper cost limit to the review response however I would direct you to previous advice from the FOI unit and advice from colleagues in Finance. [Redacted] had advised that the upper cost limit would probably not be applicable to any information in scope of this request. [Redacted - out of scope]

Kind regards

Hi [Redacted]

[Redacted - out of scope]

I don't think we could apply the upper cost limit to any costs that we hold given the request is about a specific topic and if cost information is held it is likely to be stored together.

Kind regards

[Redacted] and colleagues,

I'd welcome advice on this FOI. I am wondering if the cost of locating, retrieving and providing the information requested will exceed the £600 upper cost limit. The correspondent is asking us to look back over the last ten years and estimate the costs of running the Saltire Prize (and would that include the cost of SG staff time as well as budgets allocated to the prize in each year?)
