

Midyear 2019/20
Planning Performance
Statistics published

In the first six months of 2019/20 Planning Authorities decided 13,871 local and 171 major planning applications. The figures include applications subject to processing agreements.

Decision Times for Local Developments continue to average 9 weeks

In the first six months of 2019/20 the local development average decision time was 9.0 weeks, slightly slower than the first two quarters in 2018/19 but matching the 2018/19 annual average decision time.

Decision times for Major Developments continue falling

In the first six months of 2019/20 the average decision time for major developments was 31.7 weeks, the quickest for the first two quarters since 2015/16.

94.3% of all planning applications approved

In the first six months of 2019/20 most planning applications were approved

94.3% of all planning applications decided in the first six months of 2019/20 were approved.

Planning Applications by Development Type, Apr to Sep 2019/20

Householder 6,812	Other Developments 3,455		Housing 2,610
	Listed Building and Conservation Area Consents 1,845	Advertisements 995		Business and Industry 704
		Other Consents and Certificates 903		Other types 472

More than a third of planning applications made by householders

In the first six months of 2019/20 householders making changes to their property made more than a third (6,812 of 17,796 or 38%) of all applications.

Housing applications were the third largest group with 15% of the total.